Tijdschrift voor Genderstudies

Tijdschrift voor Genderstudies (Journal for Gender Studies) now invites abstracts for articles for its June 2023 issue.

As this is a general issue there is no subject limitation, provided that the article problematizes gender. The journal favors submissions that touch upon current debates in the Netherlands and/or Belgium (including, but not limited to their global and colonial ties) or that include case studies that are relevant for Dutch and Flemish academic fields. Tijdschrift voor Genderstudies specifically welcomes abstracts by early career researchers, researchers from marginalized backgrounds, and researchers without institutional backing.

Abstracts should be submitted in Dutch or English before July 1, 2022. Once your abstract has been assessed and judged suitable for this issue, you will receive an invitation to submit a full-length article. Notifications of acceptance will be sent by August. The deadline for submission of articles (of approximately 6500 words) is December 1, 2022. All submissions will be reviewed in a double-blind peer review process. In case of a high number of positively peer-reviewed contributions, the editorial board reserves the right to make a final selection of articles and to publish some contributions in a later issue.

Abstracts of approximately 500 words should state the problem or research question addressed in the proposed paper; outline the theoretical framework; state the main point or argument of the proposed paper; provide a rough indication of the methods used; and - where relevant - present a rough overview of literature used. Abstracts should be sent to tvgarchief@gmail.com.

More information as well as instructions for authors can be found on: <https://www.aup.nl/nl/journal/tijdschrift-voor-genderstudies>.

Tijdschrift voor Genderstudies (Journal for Gender Studies) is a forum for the scientific problematization of gender in relation to ethnicity, sexuality, class, and age. The journal is an interdisciplinary medium operating at the intersection of society, culture, health and science. The editorial board invites articles about gender issues from different disciplines and accepts articles in Dutch and English. As well as publishing articles, the journal includes essays, columns (short topical and polemical articles), interviews, reviews, summaries of dissertations and conference reports. Tijdschrift voor Genderstudies is published by Amsterdam University Press.
